

SISTER MARY ALPHONSUS VANDERPOOL

June 11, 1920

Sister Alphonsus was a sister of Sister Mary James who followed her into the convent. She made her vows on her deathbed, having spent two years as a novice. She died on June 11, 1920. She had a sister, Irene, who entered the Sisters of St. Joseph after the affiliation with Los Angeles in 1925. Irene, however, was so lonesome that she did not stay. She went back to Idaho to be among people whom she had known for a longer time.
